

Searching the IMS web-site

How to use the search and advanced search facilities

The search box [top right] has a drop-down box to allow you to select SECTIONS of the site to search. By default the entire site is searched for content matching your keyword[s].

A more refined tool to locate CONTENT TYPE [published papers/forum topics/articles] can be found on the advanced search page.